

>> defense reaction

you're afraid
of losing control
you're afraid
to sell your soul
you believe in your god
put trust in his words and if you could spend your last drop of blood a life for nothing
a death for god
you are longing for protection victim of selection
you're afraid
to rest in hell
you don't want to be an infidel
in fear of the unknown
in ignorance of your fears
you trust his blood,
trust her tears
you are longing for perfection
as a defense reaction
